

- Ninja Kitty got mad at his brother and yelled, “Get away! I don’t like you!” Did Ninja Kitty use mean words or kind words? (Mean words) You got it! God wants us to say, “Hi-yah!” to yelling and using mean words.
- If Ninja Kitty wants to use kind words, should he say, “Leave me alone,” or “No, thank you”? (No, thank you) Yes! Using kind words is the right thing to do!
- Does Ninja Kitty look happy or mad? (Mad) He does look mad. Is it OK for Ninja Kitty to say mean words when he is mad, or should he always say kind words? (Always say kind words) Yes! God will help Ninja Kitty say kind words even when he feels mad.

- Does Ninja Froggy look happy or mad? (Happy) He does look happy. When we use kind words, it makes everyone feel happy, just like Ninja Froggy!
- Ninja Froggy wants you to remember what we need to know today. So everyone hop like Ninja Froggy as you say this after me: (PAUSE to allow kids to repeat while hopping like a frog) I Can (thumbs to chest) Say (cup hands around mouth) Kind Words (two thumbs up)
- If Ninja Froggy hears a friend saying mean words, should he say mean words, too? (No) No way! Even if we hear others saying mean words, God wants us to always say words that are kind!

- When Ninja Penguin’s friend stepped on his foot, he said, “Hey! I’m going to stomp on your foot now!” Did Ninja Penguin use kind words? (No) No way! What kind words could he have said instead? (I forgive you, etc.)
- Ninja Penguin wanted a toy his friend was playing with, so he yelled, “Give me that toy, now!” If you think Ninja Penguin said kind words, show me two thumbs up. If you think Ninja Penguin said mean words, show me two thumbs down. (Everyone will show two thumbs down) You’re right! God wants us to always say kind words!
- Someone yelled something mean to Ninja Penguin. He knows God wants him to only say kind words, so should Ninja Penguin walk away or yell mean words back? (Walk away) Yes! If we don’t have any kind words to say, we shouldn’t say anything at all. Walking away, taking some deep breaths, and asking God for help can help us do what’s right.

- Ninja Rabbit wanted to be the line leader. She pushed her friend and said, “Get out of my way!” Did Ninja Rabbit use mean or kind words? (Mean words) You got it! Instead of pushing and using mean words, Ninja Rabbit could ask to be the line leader.
- If Ninja Rabbit wants to use kind words, should she say, “That’s mine!” or, “Let’s share”? (Let’s share) Yes! Using kind words is the right thing to do!
- Does Ninja Rabbit look happy or mad? (Mad) She is mad because her friend just called her a mean name. Should Ninja Rabbit say mean words back to her friend? (No) No way! Even when it’s hard, God will help us to not say mean words.

- Does this silly ninja look happy or mad? (Happy) He does look happy. When we use kind words, it makes everyone feel happy! Let me see you make a happy face, just like this silly ninja! (Everyone will make happy faces)
- This ninja wants you to remember what we need to know today. So everyone say this after me in your silliest voices: (PAUSE to allow kids to repeat in silly voices) I Can (thumbs to chest) Say (cup hands around mouth) Kind Words (two thumbs up)
